WEATHER REPORT.

INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY .- For the Middle States, falling barometer, southerly to westerly winds and gradually veering to northwesterly, warmer and clear or partly cloudy weather are probable, except possibly occasional light rain or snow in the northern portions.

For the South Atlantic States, stationary or slightly lower pressure, variable winds, mostly southerly and westerly, warmer and generally clear weather. For the Gulf States, rising barometer after a temporary fall in the East Gulf, varia- ments and fervid eloquence, had consented ble winds, mostly southerly, generally warmer and clear weather. For Tennessce and the Ohio Valley, falling followed by rising barometer, warmer occasion, it is hoped, will result in such a southwesterly winds veering to cold or northwesterly, and generally clear weather. For the Lake region, falling followed by rising barometer, fresh and brisk westerly and northerly winds, colder, partly cloudy weather, and occasional light rains or snow. Except temporarily rising temperature along the lower lakes, canal regions, Indiana, and Ohio, the temperature will probably fall below freezing in the northern portions, and continue above in the southern portions during Saturday night.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY Was clear, cool, and pleasant.

Meeting of the City Council—Reports Received—The City Pay-Roll—The Ex-penses of Street Improvement.—A regular meeting of the City Council was held last night. Present at roll-call at 8 o'clock (the regular time for meeting is 72 o'clock P M.): C. C. McRae, president, and Messrs Batcheller, Brooks, Gallegher, Gary, Gibbs Matthews, Monteiro, and Sampson.

After reading the minutes of a regular, an adjourned, and a called meeting, the Chair announced that the Council was ready for business.

The report of Captain James A. Lipscomb, chief of police, for the month of November, was received. [The number of arrests have been heretofore reported.] The amount of fines collected during the month was $32.75. Of this amount $31 were for fines for offences against the Commonwealth. The report of S. M. Perdue, superinten-was received. [The number of interments has already been published in the Dispatch.] The receipts for the month were $34; the expenditures for the same period were $70.40. Mr. Gary, from the Committee on Water-Power, reported that the injuries to the water-power by the freshet were considera-

dent of Maury Cemetery, for the past month, ble, but not as large as was expected. Most BILLIARD-MATCH .- A match-game of bil- of the damage had been repaired, and work favorably. The expenses thus far has been about $240.

Attention was called to a serious break near the headgates. Mr. Gary also reported that there were several applicants for the Manchester corn-

In accordance with a resolution of the Council adopted November 22d, Mr. J. B. Vaden, auditor, presented the following list amount received by each per annum: W. I. Clopton, judge of the Hustings Court, $800; John R. Cogbill, clerk of the same, $500; Henry Fitzgerald, city sergeant, $400; A. C. Atkisson, Commonwealth's atsurer, $1,100; A. A. Allen, commissioner of the revenue, $500; S. M. Perdue, superintendent of cemetery, $600; chief of police The receipts of Maury Cemetery from February 1st to November 30, 1877, were

Mr. Brooks, from the special street com-Ninth street for sidewalks of $264.03. The average cost for paying per square yard was about seventy-three cents. The excavations on Twelfth street from Maury to Semmes have cost $1,226.71 for grading alone, and it will cost about $400 additional to complete the work.

Mr. Brooks stated that the last bonds issued had been sold at ninety cents, subject to a commission of two per cent. Mr. Brooks offered a resolution that the chairman of the special street committee turn over all funds in his hands to the City Treasurer, and that the latter be directed to disburse the same as other city funds in the to see them. Sold by A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Bos-street improvement. Adopted.

Death of a Well-Known Uilizen .- Elder James Gregory died vesterday at his residence, on the Broadrock road, about fourteen miles from Manchester, after a lengthy illness. Mr. Gregory was generally beloved and respected. His long illness was borne with patience, and he met his end with characteristic fortitude. The deceased was the father of J. Marcus Gregory and Mrs. John R. Hockaday, of Richmond.

Call Declined .- Rev. J. Julius Sams, rector of the Meade Memorial (Episcopal) church, of this city, has received a call to Emanuel church, Athens, Ga. Not only the members of his own congregation but the entire community will be rejoiced to know that the call has been declined. Filling Up the Waste Places .- The Danville Railroad Company has been filling up the places along the line of its road on the James river islands, that were washed by the recent flood, with mud deposited on the Richmond dock by the same disaster. This HEAD is certainly returning earth to earth, and is HEAD the first instance on record where this species of freshet débris has been utilized. Personal.-Rev. William McGee was pastor of the Methodist church from November, 830, and $40, and Stem-Winders at $50-very su-1874, to November, 1875. He goes this year perb, splendld time-keepers. Also, some more magprireeshoro? elder of the Eastern-Shore district, but the
